The Insurers shall be entitled at their discretion to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured the defence or settlement of any claim and to prosecute at their own expense and for their own benefit any claim for indemnity or damages against any other persons and the Insured shall give all information and assistance required. No admission of liability or offer, promise or payment shall be made without the written consent of the Insurers. Even if the allegations of a suit are groundless, false or fraudulent the Insurers have the right and duty to defend any suit against the Insured for compensation to which indemnity under the Master Policy applies or would apply if the claim was sustained and the Insurers shall make such investigations and settlement of any claim as the Insurers deem expedient.

- 4) The Insured shall take all reasonable care to prevent accidents and to maintain all buildings, furnishing and Vehicles in sound condition and to employ only competent Employees and to act in accordance with all statutory obligations and regulations. - 8) The Insurers will, subject to the terms, Conditions, Limitations and Exclusions hereof, treat each party termed the "Insured" as though a separate Insurance had been issued to each of them provided that nothing in this Condition shall increase the liability of the Insurers to pay any amount in respect of any one claim or during the Period of Coverage set forth herein in excess of the amount stated in the Section under which the claim is made as the Limit of Indemnity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that the Master Policy shall not indemnify any Insured under the Master Policy for legal liability for Bodily Injury or Property Damage sustained by another Insured under the Master Policy occurring while both Insureds are participating in Polo matches, polocrosse, practice and training sessions.

- 9) The Insured shall give the Insurers immediate notice in writing of any alteration which materially affects the risk.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Insurers agree to waive all their rights of subrogation against:

- (a) any corporation, the majority of whose capital stock is owned or controlled by the Insured.
 - (b) any corporation, firm or individual who owns or controls the majority of the capital stock of the Insured.

 - (d) any Employee or former Employee of the Insured unless the claim has been brought about or contributed to by the dishonest, fraudulent, criminal or malicious act or omission of the Employee or former Employee

EXCESS

The Personal Liability Section excludes the first AUD 2,500.00 of each and every claim for Property Damage.

EXCLUSIONS

The Insurers under the Master Policy shall not be liable for:

- (b) advise the Insurers in writing immediately the Insured has knowledge of any impending prosecution, inquest or fatal accident inquiry in connection therewith.

The above conditions are deemed to apply whether or not any such claim is likely to fall within any sum borne by the Insured as an excess.

2) The Insured shall provide the Insurers with such particulars and information as the Insurers may require and shall forward to the Insurers immediately on receipt every letter, writ, summons and process. The Insurers shall be entitled at their discretion to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured the defence or settlement of any claim and to prosecute at their own expense and for their own benefit any claim for indemnity or damages against any other persons and the Insured shall give all information and assistance required. No admission of liability or offer, promise or payment shall be made without the written consent of the Insurers.

Even if the allegations of a suit are groundless, false or fraudulent the Insurers have the right and duty to defend any suit against the Insured for compensation to which indemnity under the Master Policy applies or would apply if the claim was sustained and the Insurers shall make such investigations and settlement of any claim as the Insurers deem expedient.

- 3) The Insurers may at any time at their sole discretion pay to the Insured the maximum sum payable under the Master Policy or any lesser sums for which any claim or claims can be settled and the Insurers shall not be under any further liability hereunder.
- 4) The Insured shall take all reasonable care to prevent accidents and to maintain all buildings, furnishing and Vehicles in sound condition and to employ only competent employees and to act in accordance with all statutory obligations and regulations. The Insured shall forthwith make good or remedy any defect or danger which becomes apparent or take such additional precautions as the circumstances may require.

- 5) If at any time any claim arises under the Master Policy there be any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the Insured covering the same liability the Insurers shall not be liable to pay or contribute more than its rateable proportion of any such claim and Costs and Expenses in connections therewith, subject to Section 76 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.
- 6) Any fraud, misstatement or concealment by an Insured in relation to any matter affecting coverage or in connection with the making of a claim under the Master Policy shall entitle the Insurers, without prejudice to any other right(s) they may have under the Master Policy, to refuse to pay such claim in respect of the said Insured.
- 7) The Insurers will, subject to the terms, Conditions, Limitations and Exclusions hereof, treat each party termed the "Insured" as though a separate Insurance had been issued to each of them provided that nothing in this Condition shall increase the liability of the Insurers to pay any amount in respect of any one claim or during the Period of Coverage set forth herein in excess of the amount stated in the Section under which the claim is made as the Limit of Indemnity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that the Master Policy shall not indemnify any Insured under the Master Policy for legal liability for Bodily Injury or Property Damage sustained by another Insured under the Master Policy occurring while both Insureds are participating in Polo matches, polocrosse, practice and training sessions.

- 8) Termination of membership of Equestrian Australia Limited or any Affiliated Association or Affiliated Club from any cause will similarly terminate a Member's cover under the Master Policy from the same date.
- 9) If any difference shall arise between the Insurers and the Insured as to the amount to be paid under the Master Policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to an arbitrator to be appointed by the parties in accordance with the Statutory provisions in that behalf for the time being in force. Where any difference is by this Condition to be referred to arbitration the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Insurers, subject to Section 43 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.
- 10) Any indemnity provided by the Master Policy in respect of legal liability to pay damages (including claimants costs and expenses) shall operate in accordance with the law of any country but not in respect of any judgement, award, payment or settlement made within countries which operate under the laws of the United States of America or Canada (or to any order made anywhere in the world to enforce such judgement, award, payment or settlement either in whole or in part).
- 11) The Insured shall not enter in to any agreement with another person or organization which excludes or reduces the Insured's rights to make a claim against that person or organization without the Insurers' prior written consent.
The Insurers shall be subrogated to all the Insured(s) rights of recovery against any person or organization before or after any payments under the Master Policy. The Insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do what ever else is necessary to secure such rights. The Insured shall do nothing to prejudice such rights.

12) The Insurers shall not provide any indemnity or be liable to pay any claim under the Master Policy to the extent that the provision of such indemnity or the payment of such claim would expose the Insurers to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

- 1) The Insured shall:
- (a) give immediate notice to the Insurers in writing of anything which may give rise to a claim being made against the Insured and for which there may be liability under the Master Policy.

(b) advise the Insurers in writing immediately the Insured has knowledge of any impending prosecution, inquest or fatal accident inquiry in connection therewith.

The above conditions are deemed to apply whether or not any such claim is likely to fall within any sum borne by the Insured as an excess.

- 2) The Insured shall provide the Insurers with such particulars and information as the Insurers may require and shall forward to the Insurers immediately on receipt every letter, writ, summons and process. The Insurers shall be entitled at their discretion to take over and conduct in the name of the Insured the defence or settlement of any claim and to prosecute at their own expense and for their own benefit any claim for indemnity or damages against any other persons and the Insured shall give all information and assistance required. No admission of liability or offer, promise or payment shall be made without the written consent of the Insurers.

Even if the allegations of a suit are groundless, false or fraudulent the Insurers have the right and duty to defend any suit against the Insured for compensation to which indemnity under the Master Policy applies or would apply if the claim was sustained and the Insurers shall make such investigations and settlement of any claim as the Insurers deem expedient.

- 3) The Insurers may at any time at their sole discretion pay to the Insured the maximum sum payable under the Master Policy or any lesser sums for which any claim or claims can be settled and the Insurers shall not be under any further liability hereunder.
- 4) The Insured shall take all reasonable care to prevent accidents and to maintain all buildings, furnishing and Vehicles in sound condition and to employ only competent employees and to act in accordance with all statutory obligations and regulations. The Insured shall forthwith make good or remedy any defect or danger which becomes apparent or take such additional precautions as the circumstances may require.
- 5) If at any time any claim arises under the Master Policy there be any other insurance effected by or on behalf of the Insured covering the same liability the Insurers shall not be liable to pay or contribute more than its rateable proportion of any such claim and Costs and Expenses in connections therewith, subject to Section 76 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.
- 6) Any fraud, misstatement or concealment by an Insured in relation to any matter affecting coverage or in connection with the making of a claim under the Master Policy shall entitle the Insurers, without prejudice to any other right(s) they may have under the Master Policy, to refuse to pay such claim in respect of the said Insured.
- 7) The Insurers will, subject to the terms, Conditions, Limitations and Exclusions hereof, treat each party termed the "Insured" as though a separate Insurance had been issued to each of them provided that nothing in this Condition shall increase the liability of the Insurers to pay any amount in respect of any one claim or during the Period of Coverage set forth herein in excess of the amount stated in the Section under which the claim is made as the Limit of Indemnity.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is understood and agreed that the Master Policy shall not indemnify any Insured under the Master Policy for legal liability for Bodily Injury or Property Damage sustained by another Insured under the Master Policy occurring while both Insureds are participating in Polo matches, polocrosse, practice and training sessions.

- 8) If any difference shall arise between the Insurers and the Insured as to the amount to be paid under the Master Policy (liability being otherwise admitted) such difference shall be referred to an arbitrator to be appointed by the parties in accordance with the Statutory provisions in that behalf for the time being in force. Where any difference is by this Condition to be referred to arbitration the making of an award shall be a condition precedent to any right of action against the Insurers, subject to Section 43 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984.
- 9) Any indemnity provided by the Master Policy in respect of legal liability to pay damages (including claimants costs and expenses) shall operate in accordance with the law of any country but not in respect of any judgement, award, payment or settlement made within countries which operate under the laws of the United States of America or Canada (or to any order made anywhere in the world to enforce such judgement, award, payment or settlement either in whole or in part).
- 10) The Insured shall not enter in to any agreement with another person or organization which excludes or reduces the Insured's rights to make a claim against that person or organization without the Insurers' prior written consent.
The Insurers shall be subrogated to all the Insured(s) rights of recovery against any person or organization before or after any payments under the Master Policy. The Insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do what ever else is necessary to secure such rights. The Insured shall do nothing to prejudice such rights.
- 11) The Insurers shall not provide any indemnity or be liable to pay any claim under the Master Policy to the extent that the provision of such indemnity or the payment of such claim would expose the Insurers to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, United Kingdom or United States of America.

SECURITY DETAILS

(RE)INSURER'S LIABILITY:

(RE)INSURERS LIABILITY CLAUSE

(Re)insurer's liability several not joint

The liability of a (re)insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other (re)insurers party to this contract. A (re)insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. A (re)insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other (re)insurer. Nor is a (re)insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract.

The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by a (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp. This is subject always to the provision concerning 'signing' below.

In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is a (re)insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other (re)insurer that may underwrite this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion may be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address.

Proportion of liability

Unless there is 'signing' (see below), the proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown next to its stamp and is referred to as its 'written line'.

Where this contract permits, written lines, or certain written lines, may be adjusted ('signed'). In that case a schedule is to be appended to this contract to show the definitive proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by each (re)insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). A definitive proportion (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of a Lloyd's syndicate taken together) is referred to as a 'signed line'. The signed lines shown in the schedule will prevail over the written lines unless a proven error in calculation has occurred.

Although reference is made at various points in this clause to 'this contract' in the singular, where the circumstances so require this should be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

Where coverage includes both EEA and Non EEA exposure, the following is applicable to Lloyd's Insurance Company S.A. participation only which replaces the LMA3333 above.

SEVERAL LIABILITY NOTICE

The subscribing (re)insurers' obligations under contracts of (re)insurance to which they subscribe are several and not joint and are limited solely to the extent of their individual subscriptions. The subscribing (re)insurers are not responsible for the subscription of any co-subscribing (re)insurer who for any reason does not satisfy all or part of its obligations.

ORDER HEREON: 100% of 100%.

BASIS OF WRITTEN LINES: Percentage of Whole

SIGNING PROVISIONS:

In the event that the written lines hereon exceed 100% of the order, any lines written "to stand" will be allocated in full and all other lines will be signed down in equal proportions so that the aggregate signed lines are equal to 100% of the order without further agreement of any of the (re)insurers.

However:

- a) in the event that the placement of the order is not completed by the commencement date of the period of (re)insurance then all lines written by that date will be signed in full;

- b) the (re)insured may elect for the disproportionate signing of (re)insurers' lines, without further specific agreement of (re)insurers, providing that any such variation is made prior to the commencement date of the period of (re)insurance, and that lines written "to stand" may not be varied without the documented agreement of those (re)insurers.

The signed lines resulting from the application of the above provisions can be varied, before or after the commencement date of the period of (re)insurance, by the documented agreement of the (re)insured and all (re)insurers whose lines are to be varied. The variation to the contracts will take effect only when all such (re)insurers have agreed, with the resulting variation in signed lines commencing from the date set out in that agreement.

In relation to the WRITTEN LINES:

MODE OF EXECUTION:

- a unique authorisation provided via a secure electronic trading platform;
- a timed and dated authorisation provided via an electronic message/system;
- an exchange of facsimile/scanned copies showing the original written ink signature of paper documents;
- an original written ink signature of paper documents (or a true representation of a signature, such as a rubber stamp).

The use of any one or a combination of these methods of execution shall constitute a legally binding and valid signing of this contract. This contract may be executed in one or more of the above counterparts, each of which, when duly executed, shall be deemed an original.

Where this contract is placed solely using a Delegated Underwriting Contract, the following 3 paragraphs are not applicable.

In a co-(re)insurance placement, following (re)insurers may, but are not obliged to, follow the premium charged by the contract leader.

(Re)Insurers may not seek to guarantee for themselves terms as favourable as those which others subsequently achieve during the placement.

(Re)Insurers confirm and agree that where NCAD (Notice of Cancellation at Anniversary Date) is embedded in their stamp/line this will mean NCED (Notice of Cancellation at Expiry Date). This does not affect the right of the (re)insurer to issue a Notice of Cancellation in accordance with the contract terms.

WRITTEN LINES:

As shown herein and, where placed electronically either wholly or in part via Electronic Trading Platform, in the SECURITY DETAILS.

NON-BUREAU

CANCELLATION PROVISIONS:
